TechBridge Sol

Employee Code of Conduct

Effective Date: January 2026
Applies To: All Employees, Contractors, and Temporary Staff

1. Purpose

The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to establish clear expectations for professional behavior, ethical standards, and workplace integrity at TechBridge Sol. Compliance with this code ensures a respectful, safe, and productive work environment while protecting the company's reputation, assets, and stakeholders.

All employees, contractors, and temporary staff are expected to understand and adhere to this Code of Conduct. Violations may result in corrective action, including termination where applicable.

2. Core Values

TechBridge Sol is committed to the following core values:

- Integrity: Conduct business honestly, transparently, and responsibly.
- Respect: Treat colleagues, clients, and partners with fairness, dignity, and inclusivity.

- Accountability: Take ownership of actions, decisions, and commitments.
- Collaboration: Work constructively across teams and geographies.
- Innovation: Encourage creativity while adhering to ethical and professional standards.

These values guide daily conduct, decision-making, and interactions at all levels of the organization.

3. Workplace Behavior

Employees are expected to:

- Maintain professional and respectful communication
- Avoid harassment, discrimination, and bullying
- Support diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives
- Address conflicts constructively and through appropriate channels

TechBridge Sol does not tolerate retaliation against individuals who raise concerns in good faith.

4. Ethical Business Practices

Employees must conduct business ethically and in compliance with applicable laws and regulations. This includes:

- Avoiding conflicts of interest
- Protecting company and client confidential information
- Reporting suspected fraud, corruption, or misconduct
- Engaging in fair and lawful competition

Managers and employees share responsibility for fostering an ethical work culture.

5. Use of Company Resources

Company resources—including technology, data, and facilities—must be used responsibly and for business purposes. Employees must:

- Safeguard company property
- Use approved software and tools
- Protect sensitive data and intellectual property
- Avoid personal activities that interfere with job performance

Misuse of company resources may result in disciplinary action.

6. Information Security and Confidentiality

Employees are required to:

- Maintain confidentiality of proprietary, client, and employee information
- Follow security protocols for data, devices, and systems
- Report any data breaches, security incidents, or unauthorized access promptly

Breach of confidentiality or data security policies may result in severe consequences, including termination and legal action.

7. Reporting and Whistleblowing

Employees are encouraged to report unethical, unsafe, or illegal behavior through established reporting channels. Reports can be made to:

- Immediate manager or supervisor
- Human Resources department
- Anonymous company reporting hotline (where available)

All reports are treated seriously and investigated confidentially. Retaliation against individuals who report concerns in good faith is strictly prohibited.

8. Compliance with Laws and Policies

Employees must comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and internal company policies. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Labor and employment laws
- Health and safety regulations
- Anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws
- Company policies related to workplace conduct, IT usage, and data security

Failure to comply may result in disciplinary measures, legal action, or termination.

9. Health, Safety, and Workplace Environment

TechBridge Sol is committed to maintaining a safe, secure, and inclusive workplace. Employees must:

- Follow all safety and security protocols
- Report unsafe conditions or incidents immediately
- Support initiatives to promote mental and physical well-being

All employees are responsible for contributing to a workplace free of hazards and discrimination.

10. Social Media and Public Representation

Employees representing TechBridge Sol publicly, including on social media, must maintain professional conduct and avoid actions that could harm the company's reputation.

- Do not disclose confidential or proprietary information
- Distinguish personal opinions from company positions
- Follow company social media guidelines and policies

Violation may result in corrective or disciplinary action.

11. Policy Review and Updates

TechBridge Sol reserves the right to amend, update, or revise this Code of Conduct at any time. Employees will be notified of material changes promptly and are expected to comply with the most current version.
